

JOINT WORKING EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Project Title: The Christie NHS Trust Programme Management

Project description:

Roche and The Christie NHS Trust propose to put in place the governance framework and programme management support required, to allow Christie clinicians and healthcare professionals to work alongside Roche teams on high value initiatives that deliver a step change in patient outcomes and value for the NHS.

Organisations involved:

Roche Products and The Christie NHS Trust have contributed resources to this project.

Project approach:

This project will be managed in accordance with NHS project management best practice guidelines under the oversight of the joint Roche and NHS project steering committee.

Current Projects Include:

1. New Contracting Models (Outcomes based contracting)
2. Real World Value Proposition research project
3. Christie Roche Precision Cancer Research Partnership
4. Clinical Trials Outreach Programme.

No clinical safety or outcomes will be measured as part of this project.

Benefits to Patients:

It is expected that patients will benefit from Improved access to personalized medicines and clinical trials leading to expected better patient outcomes.

Benefit to NHS:

The NHS is expected to benefit from dedicated project manager resource to deliver the projects to time and budget.

Benefits to Roche:

Dedicated project management on site to manage and ensure delivery of the various projects.

Outcome:

The programme management support helped to expediate and communicate projects to deliver step changes in patient care

This document has been produced by Roche Products Ltd.